Marshal Crow today received a telegram from Joe B. King, sheriff at Clarksville, Ark., saying that he had not been able to learn anything about the couple, and had not heard of them before. The woman is the one arrested while dressed as a man.

Jack Boyd Convicted in Circuit Court Today.

Will Leech Pleaded Guilty to Perjury and Was Given Three More Years.

POLICE AND OTHER COURT NEWS.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Jack Boyd, formerly hostler in the Terrell stable, was this morning given twelve years in circuit court on a charge of having illicit relations with a girl under fourteen years of age, Bessie Lewis.

The girl some time ago became a mother, and charged Boyd with being the author of her ruin. Boyd did not deny this, but claimed the girl annoyed him until he yielded. The girl had not reached the age of consent, however, and Boyd, after being released on a $500 bond, which his employer kindly furnished, became frightened and skipped out. He was a few months ago captured in St. Louis, and brought back for trial. His sentence is the heaviest single sentence imposed at this term of court.

Will Leech, colored, who was yesterday given five years for breaking into M. Livingston's, was this morning arraigned on a charge of perjury, and given three years. He pleaded guilty. When Leech was arrested by Officers Gourieux and Singery carrying off goods he had stolen, he said he had been paid to carry them away, and swore to the story in police court, being subsequently indicted for perjury by the grand jury.

There is still another charge of house-breaking against him. Et Jones, the young man who has been in jail for being implicated in the Annie Wilson grand larceny case, was this morning released on his own recognizance.

At the adjournment of court the case against Florence Dodd was on trial. It was continued over until Monday when it will be resumed.

The time of the grand jury was extended another week.

In the horse stealing case against Andy Mango, the man who was implicated in the theft with Jeff Wilkins, now in the penitentiary for the same offense, the penitentiary authorities were ordered to bring to Paducah Jeff Wilkins on the day set for the trial of Mango so that he might appear in the case as a witness.

John Durbin, the young man arrested several days ago for lunacy, was this morning released as there was not sufficient evidence to prove him insane.

Mary Lydon, of Eleventh and Jefferson streets, a deaf mute, was tried for lunacy this morning in the circuit court and adjudged a lunatic. She takes "fancies to run away" and often disappears from her home. Officer Tom Everts was appointed a committee to take her to the asylum and will leave this afternoon for Hopkinsville with his charge.

William Ricks sues Mrs. Hester Loving for an alleged debt of $15.90 contracted through a contract which was not kept as agreed.

The judgment in the case of Gunter against M. Rosenblatt, for $214, was set aside, the defendant being out of the city at the time.

POLICE COURT.

At McClain of Graves county, who was arrested for being drunk and disorderly and carrying concealed a deadly weapon, was this morning fined $25 and costs and given ten days in jail on the latter charge, and the other was dismissed. He took an appeal, and will give bond.

The case against Agent Simms, for the Armour company, was again continued. There has been no evidence of consequence thus far to prove that impure meats were exposed for sale by the company.

A breach of the peace case against Buck Young, colored, was left open.

COUNTY COURT.

Al E. Young has been appointed the administrator of the estate of the late J. J. Crawford.

EVERYTHING READY.

CONFEDERATE REUNION BEGINS NEXT WEEK AT DALLAS.

Dallas, Tex., April 19—All in readiness for the great reunion of Confederate veterans which will be held in this city next week. At a meeting of the executive committee today the various chairmen reported that their work had been finished and that on Monday the gates of the city would be thrown open to the old soldiers. All indications point to one of the largest and most successful reunions in the history of the organization. All the state divisions from Maryland to Texas promise to be well represented and there will be undoubtedly an unusually large number of visitors who will attend simply as spectators. The arrangements have been made on a scale to insure good accommodations for all comers.

GOVERNMENT IS STRING.

COLOMBIA NOW CONFIDENT OF ITS ADVANTAGE IN THE LITTLE REVOLUTION.

Colon, Colombia, April 19—A thousand government troops from the department of Santander reached Colon last night, by way of Barranquilla, on board the former French steamer St. Germain and the Colombian gunboat Gen. Pinzon. They are under command of General Luis Morales Berti. At Barranquilla he has 1,000 additional soldiers ready to send to the isthmus at the first opportunity. The government is now able, owing to defeat of the insurgents in the interior of the country, to send necessary reinforcements to the isthmus, and put an end to the insurrection in the isthmus of Panama. The government is also receiving large sums of money from Bogota, Antioquia, Barranquilla and Cuauva to meet the necessary war expenses.

IS EXPANDING.

FLOURNOY TOBACCO CO. TO INCREASE CAPITAL STOCK.

The Flournoy Tobacco Co. will in a few days increase its capital stock to $80,000 and incorporate the company. This has been deemed necessary by the rapid growth of its business. The new stock in the company will be taken on by Messrs. Joseph L. Friedman, Rabb Noble and others. There is some talk of a consolidation of this company and the M. B. Nash Tobacco Co. In fact the proposition is before the two companies but it has not been acted upon definitely.

satisfactory, with collections fair. Retail trade is very good in most all lines, and especially in furniture and house furnishings.

Real estate is active and bringing good prices. Building is still hampered by the carpenters' strike, and no immediate settlement in prospect.

TO INCREASE MEMBERSHIP.

CHESS, CHECKER AND WHIST CLUB WILL HAVE 100 MEMBERS.

The management of the Chess, Checker and Whist club has decided to increase the membership to an even one hundred.

The membership has been limited to seventy-five since the organization of the club, but as it has become so popular, and so many desiring to come in, the management considered it best to make the increase. Since the organization of the club, over one year ago, its popularity has been unequalled by any other club in the city, and it will continue to meet the favor of all. The parlors are neatly fitted out with reading and writing tables, and a regular card room is set apart for cards and checkers, and the remainder of the suite of rooms is used for billiards and pool.

Robert E. Hager and Ethel V. Warren of Lexington, Ky., went to Metropolis, Ill., yesterday and were married by Justice Liggett. The bride had a quivering youngster with her, which she turned over to a spectator to hold until the ceremony was over.

NEW PRESIDENT.

MR. EUGENE PRATT RESIGNS IN THE CENTRAL LABOR UNION.

Mr. Eugene Pratt, elected some time ago president of the Central Labor union, has resigned, and is succeeded by Mr. Henry Hymen, a ship carpenter. Mr. Pratt resigned because he went into business and had to withdraw from the cigarmakers' union, which made him ineligible to hold a position in Central body.

Colonel N. Leonard returned to Eddyville at noon, after a short business visit here.

KILLED BY A TRAIN

Jack White, an Aged Employee of the Illinois Central, Dead.

A Train Near the Passenger Depot Backed Over Him This Morning—Died at 9:45.

FORMER HOME IN CINCINNATI.

"Captain Jack" White, a familiar employee of the Illinois Central, whose duty is to work about the depot yards, was fatally injured this morning at 7:45 o'clock by being run over by a train near the passenger station. Both feet were cut off, his back was mashed and his head badly crushed and cut. He died at 9:45.

The St. Louis train had arrived and discharged its load at the depot, and was backing into a sidetrack when a switchman noticed a coal bucket tumbling from beneath the wheels. An examination was made and Captain White found beneath the wheels, two coaches having passed over him.

He was picked up and carried to the baggage room, where physicians attended him, and subsequently conveyed to the railroad hospital.

It is supposed that the victim was walking down the track picking up trash and paper, which it was his custom to do in cleaning up the yards, and the coal bucket was always carried by him as a receptacle for the trash. The train backed upon him unawares, and none of the crew saw him until after the accident.

The mishap is deplored by every man who knew the aged unfortunate, who was 48 years old, and a native of Cincinnati, and had worked here for two years for the Illinois Central. He has a father in Cincinnati and several sisters in Covington, and one in California. His duties were such as to carry him everywhere in the yards, and he was well known among the railroad men. He lived in Little's addition, and has no family.

Coroner Peel is this afternoon preparing to hold an inquest over the remains, which have been taken to Nance's undertaking establishment to await advices from relatives in Cincinnati. It is not yet known what disposition will be made of the remains.

HELD A CONFERENCE.

AND OUTLINED PLANS FOR THE Y. M. C. A. CANVASS.

The citizens' committee and Mr. George Howser met last night at the association headquarters to discuss plans for raising a $40,000 subscription for the new Y. M. C. A. building here. It was decided that one business man accompany Mr. Howser about each day of the canvass to aid in the work.

The $40,000 to be raised will be expended $30,000 for a building, $5,000 for a site and $5,000 for furniture. The prospects are very bright.

After the conference refreshments were served by Messrs. Russell, Beckman and Hubbard, of the special committee.

The results of the financial canvass were reported more than satisfactory. Mr. Howser reports all those who have been approached are more than willing to help the cause, and he has met with the best of encouragement. The canvass was ordered continued on a much larger scale than it has been, and better results are expected during the next week. Tomorrow afternoon Mr. Howser will again speak to the men at the association on "The New Building and the Young Men of Paducah." His talks are always interesting and well attended. Rev. B. E. Reed will talk to the boys at the association at two o'clock on the subject "What One Is Here For." Mr. Howser will also make a few remarks to the boys relative to the building.

THE PAY CAR HERE.

The I. C. pay car arrived in Paducah from the St. Louis division of the I. C. at 11 o'clock this morning and began paying off at the freight depot yards first. It will finish this afternoon and lay over here all day Sunday leaving for Louisville on Monday morning at 6 o'clock.

Vote for Queen of the Carnival Increasing More Rapidly Now.

The Elks Will Run Boom Trains out of Paducah Before the Carnival.

PREPARATIONS ARE BEING HASTENED.

The vote for queen of the Elks' carnival is increasing more rapidly now, and in a few days the interest will be very great indeed. The impression that the queen will have to furnish her own wardrobe is erroneous. It is to be furnished by the Elks, and will be made to order as soon as the queen is selected.

The vote today stands:
Anna Boswell—378.
Ida Leake—267.
Hattie Terrell—187.
Ethel Morrow—176.
Martha Davis—175.
Laura Sanders—163.
Sylvia Calissi—165.
Lizzie Sinnott—137.
Alice Westman—106.
Bertha Hall—84.
Emma Reed—60.
Mamie Townsend—57.
Mary Boswell—47.
Maggie Williams—35.
Elizabeth Carney—29.

Manager Rice and the executive committee have decided on a novel and what is believed will be a very successful method of advertising the carnival. It is to run "boom" trains out of the city on the Illinois Central and N. C. and St. L. road just before the carnival. Manager Rice called on the management of the two roads this morning and made preliminary arrangements, and the first train will be run out on the Tuesday of the week just preceding the carnival, May 6, and the next about Wednesday or Thursday of the same week. People who want to take the trip may do so for $1 the round trip.

One train will be run as far as Fulton on the Illinois Central and one as far as Paris, Tenn., on the N. C. and St. L. One may be run up the Illinois Central as far as Princeton or Central City.

A band will accompany the crowd, and a street parade given at the various towns along the line. It is believed it will be a fine way to boom the carnival.

The contract for lights will be let shortly. Supt. Simon, of the Paducah Light and Power company, was out yesterday inspecting the grounds to prepare some plan for arranging the lights.

The ladies of Grace Episcopal church have accepted the refreshment stand tendered them on the grounds by the committee.

The crowning of the queen will take place on the carnival grounds on the opening night of the carnival, and will be a magnificent display. Mrs. Whelan expects to make the flower parade one of the most beautiful things ever seen in the city. She will shortly have samples of her flowers in various streets downtown. She now has samples at Elks headquarters.

FEARDING TOBACCO LION.

Raleigh, N. C., April 18—Colonel John W. Hindsdale, the representative of the Imperial Tobacco company of Great Britain and Ireland, today paid Sheriff Wake of this county $1,000 as franchise tax for a corporation to do business in North Carolina, with headquarters here. Colonel Hindsdale stated that his company would put buyers in all the North Carolina markets and would probably establish agencies in all Southern states.

MISS BOSWELL LEADS

Vote for Queen of the Carnival Increasing More Rapidly Now.

The Elks Will Run Boom Trains out of Paducah Before the Carnival.

PREPARATIONS ARE BEING HASTENED.

The vote for queen of the Elks' carnival is increasing more rapidly now, and in a few days the interest will be very great indeed. The impression that the queen will have to furnish her own wardrobe is erroneous. It is to be furnished by the Elks, and will be made to order as soon as the queen is selected.

The vote today stands:

Anna Boswell—278.
Ida Leake—267.
Hattie Terrell—187.
Ethel Morrow—176.
Martha Davis—175.
Laura Sanders—168.
Sylvia Calissi—165.
Lizzie Sinnott—137.
Alice Westerman—106.
Bertha Hill—84.
Emma Reed—60.
Mamie Townsend—57.
Mary Boswell—47.
Maggie Williams—35.
Elizabeth Carney—29.

Manager Rice and the executive committee have decided on a novel and what is believed will be a very successful method of advertising the carnival. It is to run "boom" trains out of the city on the Illinois Central and N. C. and St. L. road just before the carnival. Manager Rice called on the management of the two roads this morning and made preliminary arrangements, and the first train will be run out on the Tuesday of the week just preceding the carnival, May 6, and the next about Wednesday or Thursday of the same week. People who want to take the trip may do so for $1 the round trip.

One train will be run as far as Fulton on the Illinois Central and one as far as Paris, Tenn., on the N. C. and St. L. One may be run up the Illinois Central as far as Princeton or Central City.

A band will accompany the crowd, and a street parade given at the various towns along the line. It is believed it will be a fine way to boom the carnival.

The contract for lights will be let shortly. Supt. Simon, of the Paducah Light and Power company, was out yesterday inspecting the grounds to prepare some plan for arranging the lights.

The ladies of Grace Episcopal church have accepted the refreshment stand tendered them on the grounds by the committee.

The crowning of the queen will take place on the carnival grounds on the opening night of the carnival, and will be a magnificent display.

Mrs. Whelan expects to make the flower parade one of the most beautiful things ever seen in the city. She will shortly have samples of her flowers in various streets downtown. She now has samples at Elks headquarters.

BEARDING TOBACCO LION.

Raleigh, N. C., April 18—Colonel John W. Hinsdale, the representative of the Imperial Tobacco company of Great Britain and Ireland, today paid Sheriff Wake of this county $1,000 as franchise tax for a corporation to do business in North Carolina, with headquarters here. Colonel Hinsdale stated that his company would put buyers in all the North Carolina markets and would probably establish agencies in all Southern states.

IN THE THEATRICAL WORLD

Attractions coming to The Kentucky during the remainder of the regular winter season:

Monday night, April 21—"Jesse James, a Bandit Hero."

Saturday, matinee and night, April 26—"The Knobs of Tennessee"

Monday, April 28th, and all week, The Arnold Stock Co. in repertoire.

Thursday, May 8—Miss Viola Allen in "The Palace of the King."

Friday, matinee and night, May 9—Return engagement of Ellery's Royal Italian Band.

The Wilbur Opera company goes to Quebec shortly for the summer. This week it has been playing in Lockport, N. Y.

The Murray and Mack Co. close their season at The Grand Opera House in St. Louis today. Mr. Mack will be in Paducah on a visit shortly.

Mr. Ed Bishoff, the trap drummer for The Kentucky orchestra, who had been here since the opening of The Kentucky, left yesterday for his home in Louisville.

The Ferris Comedians last night presented "The Commodore" to a well pleased house. It was one of the strongest plays, especially from a scenic standpoint, given by the company. This afternoon there is a large crowd attending the matinee, and tonight the engagement will close.

Prof. Gentry's animal show drew large crowds both afternoon and night yesterday at Ninth and Broadway, and is better than ever before. Nothing has been spared to make it one of the most complete, one of the cleanest and best entertainments possible to conceive, and the people are always glad to hear that it is coming. Prof. Gentry now has four shows on the road.

Mr. Ollie Mack, in connection with Manager English, will have the following attractions on the road next season:

Murray and Mack in "Tit for Tat," that is here Thanksgiving Day; "Pickings from Puck," with Willard Sims in the title role, to be here March 10th.

"Finnegan's Ball," to be here in February.

"Shooting the Chutes," with Gus Pixley as star, to be here in December.

The musicians and music lovers of this city who were so fortunate as to hear Ellery's Royal Italian band when it was here last month have never ceased to talk about that splendid organization, and the great impression it made here. It is doubtful if any organization that has ever visited this city has created a more favorable impression than did this company of fifty Italian musicians. The band came here almost a comparative stranger, but it had not played two selections at the first concert before the people present realized that they were listening to an organization whose equal had never before played here. At first Creators' idiosyncrasies appeared a trifle ridiculous, but the people soon realized he was sincere.

Everything is going along nicely for the English Stock Co.'s opening of the summer season at The Kentucky Monday night, May 12th. Mr. True S. James, the leading man and director, is at present in Chicago completing all arrangements, and the entire company will be there by May 5th, to thoroughly rehearse the opening bills. Miss Justina Wayne, the beautiful little blonde lady that will play juvenile and ingenuine parts writes she may be here by May 1st. Miss May Stockton, the dramatic soprano, will also be here by that time. The opening week will be one long to be remembered, and the initial bow of the English Stock Co., introducing its members in their new home to their many new friends will be an auspicious occasion.

A clean, wholesome, invigorating drama is the "Knobs of Tennessee," pleasing to all lovers of genuine amusement. The author penetrated close to nature's heart when he explored the recesses of those southern foothills for material for this drama. He has succeeded to a remarkable degree in preserving the atmosphere of the region and the spirit animating its people in his efforts to transfer a fascinating type of American citizenship to the stage. The breath of strange woods is in it, and it pulsates with vivacity, vitality and vigor of mountain life. In presenting Hal Reid's latest and greatest success the management has spared no pains in making the coming appearance of "Knobs of Tennessee" one of the best dramatic productions sent to the coast this season. This attraction will give a bargain matinee and a night performance at 10, 20 and 30 cents next Saturday.

The Atlanta Journal says of "Jesse James, a Bandit Hero": "The audience that squeezed into the Columbia theatre last night was the largest in the history of that popular theatre. To the roof of the top gallery to the walls of the pit there was not an inch of standing room, and had it not been for the great fan in the dome of the house, which did excellent service, it would have been impossible for the immense crowd to stay in the theatre. The box offices were closed at 8 o'clock, and hundreds were turned away disappointed. The play, "Jesse James, a Bandit Hero," is a melodrama of the most sensational kind. The plot follows closely the story of the James boys, so well known to all classes of theatre-goers."

The cast of characters was exceptionally well selected. The heroic, the sensational, the melodramatic, the pathetic, the comedy, could not have been better placed; consequently a harmonious and excellent performance of this most popular play was the result. This attraction will be at The Kentucky Monday night.

Quite a number of people will go to St. Louis the week of April 28th to see Mrs. Patrick Campbell. The plays which she will present during her brief visit there will be Arthur Wing Pinero's "The Second Mrs. Tanqueray;" "The Notorious Mrs. Ebbesmith," by the same author; the Louis N. Parker version of Sundermann's "Magda" and Bjornstjerne Bjornson's "Beyond Human Power," beyond question the most satisfactory selections from her large repertoire that could be made, from the theatre-goer's point of view, for Mrs. Campbell was the one actress in the world whom Arthur Wing Pinero chose to create the characters of Paula Tanqueray and Agnes Ebbesmith, while Mrs. Campbell herself really esteems "Magda" the greatest of all her impersonations. Mrs. Campbell and her specially selected London company will come from Cleveland, Ohio, to fill her St. Louis engagement, and will jump from St. Louis direct to Detroit, and from thence to Pittsburgh, where she will close the present season's tour.

The enormous success that Viola Allen has achieved during the past three years, first as Glory Quayle in "The Christian," and during the present year as Dolores de Mendoza "In the Palace of the King" has been one of the theatrical wonders of the time. That Miss Allen, who has won many triumphs, first in "Esmeralda," and then as leading lady with John McCullough, Tomasso Salvini, Lawrence Barrett, W. J. Florence and Joseph Jefferson, and later as the leading lady of the Charles Frohman Stock Co., should have not aspired to stellar honors before was occasion for surprise. Miss Allen's stellar honors have been fairly won, and her splendid success a matter of very considerable satisfaction to SMOTHER A COUGH.

Press your hand hard enough over your mouth and you can smother a cough but you can't cure it that way. The outside is the wrong end to work on.

Scott's Emulsion thoroughly cures coughs because it strikes at the root of the trouble. The throat and lungs need a regular system of education to cure an old cough.

The point of value about Scott's Emulsion and coughs is that, while Scott's Emulsion does soothe the raw throat and lungs, it also nourishes and heals the inflamed areas.

It replaces inflamed tissue with healthy tissue—the only real cure for an old cough.

theatre-goers of all parts of the country. The two productions that Miss Allen has made have been of the highest order of merit. The company supporting Miss Allen in "In the Palace of the King" is one of superlative excellence. Miss Allen will appear at The Kentucky on May 8, Thursday, for one performance only.

Miss Viola Allen is to present her new play, and what has proven to be her greatest success, "In the Palace of the King," at The Kentucky on May 8th. Mr. Lorimer Stoddard, who dramatized "Tess" for Mrs. Fiske, has made F. Marion Crawford's romantic novel into a play, and has duplicated his former success, and at the same time provided Miss Allen with a role—that of Dona Dolores de Mendoza—which exactly suits her delightful personality and splendid powers as an actress. Miss Allen's business everywhere has been phenomenal, duplicating the remarkable record of "The Christian." "In the Palace of the King" is divided into six scenes, and is described as being of great romantic power and intensity. In the love scenes Miss Allen is said to be particularly captivating; but in the heroic passages, such as the interview with her father, in which she refuses to give up her lover, Don John, the stabbing of the Cardinal by Philip, the denunciation of Philip from the throne, and his final overthrow, are pictured almost exactly as related in the novel, he has been given the greatest praise for raising to the height of dramatic power. The scenery and costumes of this play which harkens backward to the splendid era of Philip the Second and Elizabeth, are described as being of regal magnificence. Miss Allen's supporting company is one of unusual excellence.

A GOOD JOKE.

YOUNG MEN OF PADUCAH HAVE TROUBLE OVER A RIG THEY HIRED.

Attorney W. F. Bradshaw, Jr., and Mr. Con Craig, the coal dealer, returned last night from Brookport, from which place they went a day or two ago to Golconda to examine some mining land. They hired a rig at Unionville, and were gone so much longer than they expected that when they neared Unionville on their return they were surprised as well as amused to be intercepted by a constable, who served a warrant on them for horse stealing taken out by the apprehensive owner. Sheriff Evers, of Metropolis, had previously telephoned Captain Henry Bailey, however, telling him about the warrant, and had been convinced that it was all a mistake, and the young men were straightway released and came up last night on the Fowler.

The Week in Society.

The Doings of the Smart Set the Past Six Days. ★ ★ ★
Pleasant Events and Personal Mention. ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

SOCIETY STILL DULL.

Dulness still prevails in social circles. There was nothing in the way of private entertaining, excepting the club meetings the past week. Several very attractive concerts were given and with these the society folk, have managed to amuse themselves.

DELPHIC CLUB MEETING.

The Delphic club met last Tuesday morning with Mrs. R. B. Phillips at her home on Jefferson street near Ninth. The subject for the morning was Heine. The life of Heine was discussed in a paper by Mrs. John P. Campbell. Selections from Heine's poems were given by Mrs. Lizzie Austin.

A NICE COMPLIMENT.

Miss Rolla Kruger, of Eddyville, who is well known here, has been selected as sponsor for the Jim Pierce Camp of Princeton, Ky., to the Confederate Veteran's reunion at Dallas, Tex. Miss Kruger, who is a very attractive young lady, is the daughter of Mr. Rolla Kruger, who formerly resided in Paducah. She has chosen her cousin, Miss Lillian Logue, of this city, the pretty daughter of Mr. Mack Logue, as her maid of honor.

DICKE-PAXTON WEDDING.

The wedding of Miss Flora Dick and Mr. Percy Paxton will take place next Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the St. Francis De Sales Catholic church. Rev. H. W. Jansen officiating. Mrs. Henry Knight, of Fulton, Ky., will be matron of honor and Miss Sadie Paxton maid of honor. Mr. Edwin J. Paxton will be the best man and the following young men will be the ushers: Messrs. Charles Fisher, Henry Grace, Roscoe Puryear and Jamie Paxton. The young couple will leave on the 6:05 train for New Orleans and will be at home to their friends after May 8 at the Dicke home on West Broadway.

TO MARRY IN TEXAS.

Announcement has been made of the wedding of Miss Grace Finch, who has made her home in Paducah for the past year, to Mr. James Mittleberger, of St. Louis. The marriage will take place May 1 at Tyler, Tex., where Miss Finch is now visiting her mother, Mrs. Thomas Fogarty.

Miss Finch is the adopted sister of Dr. Delia Caldwell, of this city, with whom she made her home here. She resided in Carbondale, Ill., previous to coming to Paducah to live. She is a sweet young woman, and has made a number of friends in this city. Mr. Mittleberger is an energetic young business man of St. Louis. The couple will make their home in that city.

RIGLESBERGER-READ WEDDING.

The marriage of Miss Marguerite Rigsberger and Mr. Jeff Read took place Wednesday afternoon, at 4:30 o'clock, at the residence of the bride, 1339 South Third street. Rev. W. E. Cave of the First Presbyterian church, performed the ceremony. It was a quiet home wedding, only relatives and intimate friends being in attendance.

tives and intimate friends being in attendance.

The bride wore a stylish gown of tan broadcloth. She is the attractive daughter of Mrs. Phoebe Rigsberger. Mr. Read is a prominent coal merchant, and is one of the most popular young men of this city.

The couple left at 6 o'clock over the Illinois Central for a wedding trip to New Orleans. When they return they will reside at Mrs. Frank Hoover's, at Ninth and Broadway.

MAGAZINE CLUB MEETING.

Miss Mattie Fowler was hostess to the Magazine club Thursday afternoon, at her home on Court street, near Seventh. It was one of the most pleasant entertainments of the club during the season. There were a number of reports. Mrs. J. C. Flournoy gave a charming sketch of Raphael, by Elbert Hubbard. Mrs. George Flournoy reported from Forum an account of Prince Henry's visit to America. From Scribner's Mrs. A. S. Dabney gave a sketch of Edward Everett Hale by Lyman Abbott, from the Cosmopolitan; Mrs. F. L. Scott reported an article on "The New Shakespeare-Bacon Theory." Mrs. Scott also gave, from Littell's Living Age, a criticism of "Sir Richard Chalmoudy." Miss Minnie Ratcliffe reported from the Cosmopolitan an article on "Mount Vesuvius." Miss Carrie Robison reported from a current magazine a bright article entitled "The Anglo-Saxon Society Woman."

The club was then given the special favor of a reading from Mrs. Fanetta Sargent Haskell, the impersonator, who was a guest of the meeting. Mrs. Haskell gave a charming selection from Browning.

A dainty and delightful luncheon was served in two courses.

TWO ATTRACTIVE

ENTERTAINMENTS.

Miss Lotta Carlton Greenup, the talented young violinist, pleased a large audience of cultured people, at the First Cumberland Presbyterian church, Tuesday evening, in a concert. Miss Greenup was assisted in her entertainment, by Prof. William Dold, as barytone soloist, and Prof. Harry Gilbert as pianist. The program consisted of choice musical selections, which were well rendered. Miss Greenup's delicacy of touch and expression shows her an artist in handling her violin, and there are doubtless ambitious achievements in the musical world for her.

A very attractive entertainment was given Thursday night, in the lecture room of the Broadway Methodist church by Mrs. Fannetta Sargent Haskell, the impersonator. There were many society people in the large audience which heard the gifted elocutionist. Mrs. Haskell does not need an introduction in Paducah, since she has been here frequently before, and never fails to please. Personally she is extremely magnetic, and handsome, and her talent is unusual. Her interactions are equally fine. She makes the characters she impersonates living, breathing people, and captivates her audience by her presentation of them.

There were musical numbers given by local talent between Mrs. Haskell's selections.

JAMES-BYRNES WEDDING.

The Evansville News of this week contained the following interesting account of the wedding of a former Paducah young lady:

"Few weddings have occurred in Evansville of late of wider social interest or of more charming detail in arrangement than that of last evening which united Miss Linda James and Mr. Frank Byrnes, Jr. St. Paul's Episcopal church, the scene of the beautiful ceremony, was decorated in artistic and churchly fashion with palms, fern plants and bride's roses. The attendants of the bride were chosen from her near relatives, the close family bond emphasizing the deep solemnity of the occasion. The ushers were: Messrs. Frank Aiken, Ed Thurman, Boswell Torian and Ott Barton. Then came the little pillow bearers, Master Morris Clark, and little Miss Nell Saunders Johnson. The maid of honor, Miss Arney James, a radiant vision in pale pink pineapple cloth, came in just in advance of the bride, who leaned on the arm of her father, Mr. Barclay A. James, who gave her away.

The groom with his best man, Mr. George Saunders, entered from the rear, with the minister, Rev. Dr. John Davis, meeting the party at the altar, where the beautiful, solemn Episcopal marriage service was said.

The bride's gown was a splendid creation of rich white duchess satin, entraine, which fell in long graceful folds, and set off the stylish form and fair blonde beauty of the bride to an eminent degree. The low-cut corsage was filled in with soft chiffon and finished with a bertha of real lace. She wore a long tulle veil, simply caught to her hair with pearl pins, and carried a white bound marriage book, a dainty picture of virgin beauty.

The bride is one of the most charming and likeable girls in society's realm and a decided favorite with the members of her particular circle of friends. Being a southerner, she has ever had a congenial crowd around her, with the true hospitality so characteristic of a daughter of the south, and her loss will be particularly felt in her girlhood's home, while her husband's home will be all the brighter for her sunshiny presence.

Mr. Byrnes is a rising, successful railroad man, being connected with the Illinois Central. Mr. Byrnes is a member of one of the oldest representative families of the city and has always been a congenial, all-around good fellow, highly esteemed among his associates.

Mrs. Birdie Campbell, of Paducah, was one of the out-of-town attendants.

DAILY THOUGHT.

"Young folks tell what they can do; old ones, what they have done;
and fools, what they intend to do."

The Louisville Bar Association is taking a step in the right direction in deciding to prosecute certain members for unprofessional methods. The public has no protection from unscrupulous shysters unless the members of the legal profession unite in an effort to disbar them whenever they are guilty of a breach of professional etiquette or of a dishonest or dishonorable act.

Hon. John W. Yerkes, as his many friends in Kentucky expected, has made a splendid impression in Washington. He is regarded, and rightfully, as one of the brainiest men of the administration, and stood very high with the late President McKinley, and stands very high with President Roosevelt. He is popular with everybody in Washington, and is now mentioned for a cabinet position. His admirers everywhere know that a better and abler man could not be selected, and hope he will accept a portfolio should he deem it well to do so.
He has a position now that is of great importance, but in the cabinet would doubtless attain more prestige.

Representative Babcock, of Wisconsin, recently re-elected chairman of the Republican congressional committee, says the Republican prospects for the next campaign could not be brighter.
He says that if present conditions continue in the industrial world, the Republicans will be sure to maintain control of the house of representatives, as labor is well employed at high wages and the prices of agricultural products phenomenally high. The suggestion of moving the campaign headquarters to New York is again revived, as some of the members think that with headquarters there the committee would be in closer touch with the influences that are depended upon in a campaign where the commercial prosperity of the country is such an important factor. Mr. Babcock still thinks that the Republican party will sooner or later tackle the tariff question and modify the rates on such schedules as are admitted to be too high. He thinks that when the tariff is amended it will be done by the Republicans and not by the Democrats.
The re-election of the present officers of the congressional committee indicates the state of harmony that exists in the organization.

There is no likelihood of an amendment to the rules in the house of representatives as a result of the remarks of Representative Cushman. Arbitrary methods are very necessary in a body like that, and even though the speaker may sometimes abuse his privileges or show favoritism, it is not so bad as what might result from less stringent rules, allowing every demagogue, rogue and imbecile who breaks into congress to delay legislation and take up time the government is paying for in witless and futile speech.
There is some excuse for able, intelligent men of congress debating on measures, and their words are usually regarded with attention. But there are some in congress whom no one wants to hear and would pay absolutely no attention to if they spoke.
It makes no difference how unlike the rules of the house of representatives are from what they ought to be.
They are necessary as they are, and have been that way for years past, and will doubtless continue to be for years to come. A man of intelligence must always be in the chair to protect the members of congress and the people from the ignorant, or those who desire to take up the time of congress through some unworthy motive.

The Democrats in McCracken county seem to be totally at sea. They don't know whether the trouble in the committee is going to be settled before the congressional primary or not. Some of them hope it will, and some of them hope it will not. It seems the contending elements have gotten things in such shape it is almost impossible to tell where it will all end. One leading Democrat said today the only way to reach an amicable settlement was to have some man both sides could agree on elected county chairman, but thus far that man has not been suggested. The Democrats are so badly split it is likely they will never be satisfied with any man. Each side seems determined to have some man in with its own clique elected chairman. Another thing is that after the chairmanship disagreement is adjusted, there will be another row. Several men are going to try to hold places on the county committee to which they are not entitled, as they were not put there in a regular way. If an effort is made to reorganize and have a new deal, the machine at Frankfort will fix things up so it will be worse than now. If it doesn't take a hand, there will be a continual row among those now claiming to be chairmen and committeemen. The outlook is lively. But the fun will come when the congressional primary is held and two sets of election officers try to do business in old McCracken.

WOULD TRY OLD MASTERS.

American Artists Failed to Do Justice to Mrs. Malaprop's Daughters.

A reputation for wit is like a rolling snowball—it gathers from without more than it develops from within.
He who possesses the reputation for witty stories shall have witty stories added to him, so to speak. Just so with the great national type, the American parvenu. There is a charming woman in Washington who betrays her former lowly station sometimes, so all the malapropisms current are told of her.

And here is another. It is probably quite as true as some of the others. An acquaintance met the woman on the deck of an outgoing steamer. Two of her daughters were with her.

"What—off for Europe again? What is the errand this time?"

"I'm going to have the dear girl's portrait painted."

"Why not in America?"

"Oh, I've tried all the American artists in vain," she said, "and now we're going over to see what the old masters can do."

Tortures of the Habara.

The married Druse women of Mt.
Lebanon, in Asia Minor, labor under a distinct species of torture endured under their peculiar head veil. It is attached to a long horn or tambour, usually made of metal, which is fastened to the head by means of a cushion. These habaras are of an infinite variety of colors, embellished with tassels, bands of embroidery and fringes. Underneath this again is worn a face veil of coarse thick net so heavily embroidered that one can scarcely see or breathe through it.
This is fastened close to the face and the habara drawn tightly over it. They are so muffled in the folds of these clumsy stuffs that the stranger has to look twice before he can decide whether they are advancing or retreating, and the poor wretches suffer acutely
under the weight of their veils.

Made the Adjutant-General Come.

They tell an amusing story of Adjt-Gen. Corbin at Cavite. There is a Chinese tailor there of some note for the making of white uniforms, to whom the officers often come from Manila.
The general visited Cavite and went to the Chinese to be measured for some clothes. "You will come over to the Oriente to-morrow and bring them to be tried on," he said. This was not at all the Chinese's idea of doing business;
he was used to being "sought after,"
and none of them care two cents whether they do business or not. "No can do," he said; "admiral, he come off ship to try on clothes; you come too."
It was that or no clothes, and the general had to go back to the Chinese's shop to have his clothes fitted.—Army and Navy Journal.

Duelling Made Ludicrous.

In connection with the latest German duel at Jena it is interesting to note that this year sees the jubilee of a ludicrous incident in the history of duelling in England. In 1852 Lord Strangford and Col. Romilly decided to settle an electioneering quarrel with pistols. At Weybridge station, whither the duelists and their seconds traveled, only one cab could be had to convey the party to the chosen ground, and accordingly one cab conveyed them. At the fateful moment a pleasant rose out of the copse and a pistol went off prematurely. Next morning the London Times made merry over the incident, and duelling, which had already been scotched by an order forbidding it in the army, was killed by ridicule.

Paine's Celery Compound

Permanently Cures All the Varied Forms of Rheumatism.

It Purifies the Blood and Removes Every Trace of Poisonous
Acid.

The Great Medicine Has Cured More
Rheumatic Sufferers Than All Other Combined Remedies.

Sufferers from the varied forms of rheumatism—articular, muscular, inflammatory, lumbago, and gout, should bear in mind that there is a morbidity principle in the blood when rheumatism is present. This morbid principle is uric acid, which circulates with the blood and acts upon the joints and muscles, causing the pains and agony of rheumatism. Paine's Celery Compound is the only scientific remedy for the permanent banishment of every form of rheumatism. If your joints are painful; if the knees, wrists, elbows, or ankles are swollen,
a few bottles of Paine's Celery Compound will soon remove all your troubles and pains. If you have inflammatory or sciatic rheumatism accompanied with fever, acute, darting pains in the sciatic nerve from the hip down the leg, Paine's Celery Compound taken at once will soon drive out the disease, and make you strong and active.

At this particular time when rheumatism frequently lays the foundation for other incurable and grave troubles, we specially urge the honest use of at least one bottle of Dr. Phelps' life giving medicine, Paine's Celery Compound. No case is too complicated or difficult for this king of medicines. Thousands of happy and grateful men and women sing its praises and continually recommend it. It is the only medicine that can rescue people from agony and death after physicians pronounce them incurable.
Mrs. Louisa Rix, Wesley, Iowa, says:
"Some time ago my husband was taken down with inflammatory rheumatism, so that he was unable to get out of bed alone or to dress himself. We employed good doctors and used many kinds of medicines, but with no relief.
We finally sent for a bottle of Paine's Celery Compound, and before he had finished it, he was able to be at work.
Another bottle entirely cured him."

AND JONAS FINALLY MOVED.

Horse Responded to Style of Urging to Which He Was Unaccustomed.

The wind blew from the northwest, driving little snow flurries here and there along the street, and pedestrians sought shelter in doorways from the biting blasts. Adown the almost deserted street there came a horse and wagon, driven by a dried-up little Jew, who crouched upon the seat, seeking to protect himself from the fierce wind.
His beast was a woe-begone animal with forefeet in the grave and too weary to fight against the wind. To the repeated "git ups" of his master
the jaded beast gave but weak responses and finally came to a dead stop.

"Git ap, Jonas," said the Jew, as he flapped the reins across the horse's back. Jonas stood stock still, his head bobbing dejectedly.

"G'long there, Jonas, vat's de matter mit you?"

Jonas nodded, opened his eyes and then relapsed. Then the Jew jumped to the ground, stamping and swinging his arms for warmth. He went forward, and, taking hold of the bridle, wailed in a beseeching tone as he tugged:

"Jonas, please, Jonas, git ap. Mine Gott, do you vant to freeze? Ach such a stupid horse. Git ap, Jonas."

The Jew rubbed the horse's nose,
but the beast would not be moved.
Then, losing his temper, the Jew belabored the beast verbally and physically, placing well directed kicks here and there about the animal's anatomy.
Beyond a few grunts the horse was immovable. The Jew pulled and he pushed and he kicked and he swore,
all to no avail.

At last, in despair, he mounted to the seat, picked up the reins, and, flupping them violently across the horse's back, wailed:

"Jonas, I ask you; commence, commence."

The horse looked around at his master inquiringly, and then, after more urging and oaths and pleadings, started on his weary journey.

way about him."

"Yes; I noticed when I was there the other day that he found fault with what they had to eat."

NOTES OF THE RAILROADS

There was a small wreck at Fulton last night about 9:30 o'clock, when the Memphis and Fulton accommodation train No. 134 arrived in that city. A switch engine was backing several cars across the main line and did not get out of the way in time. The engine of the passenger train struck the string, and turned over two cars loaded with hay. The engineer of the passenger train was slightly bruised, as was the fireman also, but no one was seriously injured. The wrecker was sent out from Paducah and cleared the wreck away, returning this morning to Paducah.

Engine No. 236, wrecked in the Memphis passenger accident last week, was brought into the city this morning for repairs. The engine is a big Brooks locomotive and one of the largest passenger engines on the division. The pilot was smashed to splinters and the cab knocked off. The boiler was stripped of nearly all the machinery and both cylinders are wrecked. The shop stalls are full at present, but the No. 236 will be run in as soon as the work is discharged, which will be in several days.

The St. Louis train came in on time this morning for the first time in many weeks.

The train has been running on pretty good schedule time, but has very seldom come in on time, at 7:30. This morning the depot officials were surprised to see it arrive at 7:32, just two minutes late. Of late the officials on the St. Louis divisions have taken great care to have this train make the schedule time and have given the strictest orders to this effect.

NOTES FROM GOTHAM

Rumored Visit of the Prince of Wales
Creates Great Interest.

Mayor Low's Term of Office Harassed
by a Family Quarrel in the Administration.

WHERE THE PRESIDENT IS TO SUMMER

New York, April 19.—An almost international interest has been aroused by the published hints that the Prince of Wales will visit the United States during the coming autumn as the guest of the New York Chamber of Commerce when it celebrates the opening of its new building of Dorset marble now nearing completion. Despite the publicity given the movement, however, the chamber of commerce is zealously guarding its plans and it is practically impossible to secure an interview from any of the members in a position to know the intentions of the committees arranging for the auspicious event. Enough is known, though, to make sure that this celebration will be an international occasion of extraordinary interest. If the Prince of Wales should consent to attend his presence will be only one feature of the celebration, for there will be representatives of all the great governments, and the London chamber of commerce has accepted an invitation to send delegates. In fact there will be delegates from all the great commercial bodies of the world.

If one may judge by statistics recently gathered the Protestant Episcopal church is the only Protestant denomination that has grown in this city in relative proportion to the growth of the city. During the last quarter of a century Episcopalians in Manhattan have more than doubled in membership; while in Brooklyn they have grown in ten years from 45 churches and 17,362 members to 57 churches and 30,714 members, no other denomination making anything like the same gain. This does not mean that other churches have not gained; the fact simply remains that their progress has been slower. Next to the Episcopalians among the Protestant denominations come the Methodists who have raised over three-fourths of the twenty millions which is to be known as a Twentieth Century Thank offering.

Mayor Low's term of office has not been strewn with roses so far. Just now there is a family quarrel in the administration. Water Commissioner Dougherty has put in an application for an increased appropriation for his department. Comptroller Grout opposes the increase, and the dispute between the two is rather sharp. Bridge Commissioner Lindenthal is also something of a storm centre, for certain interests are trying to force him out of office and he is as determined to stay as his opponents are to oust him.

New York rejoices in a supreme court decision which confirms the right of the city to secure a water supply from the Byron and Housatonic watersheds, thus obviating the necessity of invading the famous Ramapo region, with which so many scandals have been connected in recent years. It is now possible for the city to obtain water to last a hundred years from the region east of the Hudson river.

In a recent speech Senator Chauncey M. Depew took strong ground against the election of United States senators by popular vote. This is a natural position for Republicans in this state, in which the legislature is nearly always controlled by the Republican party, although the Democrats frequently elect their state tickets. In conformity with this idea, it is noticeable that, while the names of a number of Republicans are mentioned in connection with the senatorial places, no one has suggested the name of a single Democrat. It is the general opinion now that Senator Platt will necessarily succeed himself as there is a great need for party harmony. It is too far to tell what Senator Depew will do three years hence, but according to present day tendencies those in a position to know say they would not be surprised to see him succeeded by a Democrat.

A new epoch in the development of New York has been marked by the purchase of a large block of valuable property on upper Broadway for a you distracted now is caused by the terrible nervous tension. The nerves soon begin to give way under the strain. You will jump at every disturbance, or laugh or weep, hysterically, at no apparent cause. That is what Miss Fay Lee, of Kansas City, Kas., was coming to when she rescued herself by taking Wine of Cardui. The Wine made her a strong, healthy woman again, as it has made a million other women strong and healthy. By inducing regular menstruation the entire system of organs are relieved of the terrible wasting drains. The ligaments which hold the woman in place are strengthened by a healthy flow and that organ is returned to its proper and normal position. With regular menstruation the strain is relaxed and returning health is the result. This is what Wine of Cardui has done in thousands of cases.

Miss Margaret Robinson, of Bridges, Ala., was a great sufferer with bearing-down pains but she was cured by Wine of Cardui also. She writes:

"Before using Wine of Cardui I suffered terribly with bearing-down pains. By advice of a friend I used your medicine and now I feel as well as ever I felt in my life."

Mrs. Louise Garber, of Little Falls, N. Y., writes:

"Your Wine of Cardui has done for me what no doctor or other medicine could do. I suffered for twelve years with bearing-down pains but nothing helped me until I got Wine of Cardui."

Mrs. Mary Keifer, of Noland, Arkansas, writes:

"I have been greatly afflicted with bearing-down pains and flooding, but after using only one bottle of Wine of Cardui the trouble has been corrected and I am in better health than I have been for years."

Mrs. W. L. Daufenscheck, of Benwood, Ohio, says:

"I had terrible bearing-down pains and other sufferings. I think it was providential that I found one of your books and read of Wine of Cardui, for two bottles of it have cured me. I want to speak a few words of praise for Wine of Cardui. It is a wonderful medicine."

These letters from sufferers who have been raised from beds of dangerous and painful illness by Wine of Cardui are pointed for your benefit in this newspaper today and if you do not take advantage of it you will have no one to blame but yourself. Every druggist sells Wine of Cardui and if you secure a bottle you can begin the treatment today.

If you need advice write The Ladies' Advisory Department, The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., describing all your symptoms freely, and a letter of advice will be sent you. Secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui from your druggist today.

WINE OF CARDUI

Relieves bearing-down pains and all the aches resulting from female weakness.

Representative of Union Men Makes a Proposition.

is Probable the Contractors Will Accept it.

This afternoon there was an unexpected turn in the carpenters' strike situation and at this writing the prospects are that all the men will return to work Monday morning.

The carpenters agree to return to work for 27 7-9 cents per hour with eight hours' work, it is understood which will make their wages for the day amount to $2.25, the same as formerly.

Vice President Griffin, after holding a conference with the carpenters decided on this move and he was delegated to make the offer, which he did to Contractor William Karnes, the chairman of the Contractors' Association. Mr. Karnes called a meeting of the contractors at 8 o'clock and the question will then be settled.

It is the opinion of the contractors that the offer will be accepted, although they cannot state positively until after the meeting. This proposition is for all the union men and all will be paid alike if it is accepted.

Mrs Kittenger Sues the Western Union Telegraph Co.

Alleges a Delayed Message Prevented Her Reaching a Brother Before Death.

Attorneys Lightfoot and Yonts filed a suit yesterday afternoon late against the Western Union Telegraph Co. asking for $10,000 damages. The suit was filed for Mrs. Lou E. Kittenger and she asks for the above amount of damages, caused by mental anguish and worry over the fact that her brother died in Carterville, Ill., some time ago and she was notified of the fact by telegram. The telegram was filed one morning early and she did not receive it until the next day. When the message did arrive she started for Carterville at once only to arrive too late to attend the funeral. Her brother had been buried before she reached her destination.

FAST RAILWAY TRAVELING.

English Suburban Lines Do Better Work
Than Our Own.

Fancy running up by train to Peekskill in thirty minutes. That is about as far from this city as Brighton is from London. Many wealthy men who do business in the vicinity of the Bank of England, but live in the pretty seaside resort, now have to spend an hour in making the journey, but are soon to be enabled to do it in thirty minutes. That is the running time for the proposed electric railway. The distance from London is forty-seven miles so that the speed is something to marvel at. With a train each way every twenty minutes a London business man will be able to go from his office to Brighton more comfortably and in less time than it now takes to reach the suburbs of the metropolis by bus or cab. New Yorkers at one time expected to see electric traction installed at least on their hideous elevated roads during the life of the present generation, but they have abandoned the hope.—New York Herald.

Brazil's Witty Emperor.

The bewildering complications in every part of South America recall anew the happy remark of the late Emperor of Brazil during a European tour. While on an inspection of a celebrated factory, the workman in charge of some machinery exhibited its workings and remarked proudly that it made a hundred revolutions a minute. "What!" said Dom Pedro, "more than a South American republic!" The next turn of the wheel was to make Brazil, too, a republic.
